From Saturday March 6, to Tuesday March 9, 1762.

Whitehall, March 9.

EARLY this Morning Captain Walſingham arrived with the following Letter from Major General Monckton, dated from the Head Quarters in the Iſland of Martinico, January 20, 1762.

My Lord,

I Have the Honor to acquaint your Lordſhip, that we left Barbadoes the 5th Inſtant, anchored in St. Ann's Bay in this Iſland the 7th, the Ships of War having ſilenced ſome Batteries which the Enemy had erected there, and where I was in Hopes to have been able to have landed on the Weſtern Side of the Bay, and to have croſſed over to Port Royal Bay; but the Difficulties that would have attended our being ſupplied with Proviſions and Stores, added to the Scarcity of freſh Water in that Part, made me deſiſt. I then thought that if I could get Poſſeſſion of Pidgeon Iſland, a ſecure Anchorage might be had for the Fleet and Tranſports in Fort Royal Harbour. For this Purpoſe I detached two Brigades of the Army under the Command of Brigadier Haviland, and Grant, to Ance Darlet, where they landed, and marched to the Ground oppoſite to the Iſland; but finding the Road impaſſable for Cannon, which were neceſſary for the Reduction of that Iſland, I judged it beſt for His Majeſty's Service to proceed (having previouſly reconnoitred the Shore) and land near the Caſe des Navires; which we effected on the 16th, without any Moleſtation, the Ships of War having ſilenced the Batteries above us. I had forgotten, my Lord, to mention, that with the above Command were the Light Infantry under Lieutenant Colonel Scott, who were advanced the Night the Command remained there, and were attacked in the Night by three Companies of Grenadiers, ſome Free Booters, Negroes, and Mulattoes, which the Enemy had paſſed over from Fort Royal; but they were ſo warmly received, that they retreated precipitately, leaving ſome dead; and a Serjeant and three of their Grenadiers taken Priſoners, without any Loſs on our Side.

We are now encamped upon the Heights above Caſe des Navires; and I was in Hopes, before this Time, to have given your Lordſhip more ſatisfactory Accounts of our Operations. But the Ravines or Gullys we have to paſs, are of ſuch Depth and Difficulty of Acceſs, and that in the Face of many Batteries and Redoubts, with the whole Country, as well as Mulattoes and Negroes, as Inhabitants, in Arms, and without being able to procure any material Intelligence, that I do not think it prudent to expoſe His Majeſty's Troops, until I can erect Batteries to cover them, which we are at work upon with the utmoſt Expedition.

However, my Lord, I have the Pleaſure to acquaint you, that the Troops continue healthy, although they have been neceſſarily expoſed to laying on their Arms, and are in the higheſt Spirits; and I don't in the leaſt doubt but that I ſhall be able to execute this principal Object of His Majeſty's Commands, of which I ſhall give your Lordſhip the earlieſt Notice.

It gives me great Pleaſure to acquaint your Lordſhip, how much I am indebted to Admiral Rodney, for the Aſſiſtance received from the Fleet under his Command: The utmoſt Harmony has ſubſiſted hitherto, and I am perſuaded will continue to do ſo.

This will be delivered to your Lordſhip by Captain Walſingham, who takes Home the Admiral's Diſpatches.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Robert Monckton.

Admiralty Office, March 9.

Copy of a Letter from Rear Admiral Rodney to Mr. Clevland, dated on Board His Majeſty's Ship the Marlborough in Cas Navire Bay, Martinico, the 19th of January, 1762.

I Deſire you will acquaint their Lordſhips, that I arrived at Barbadoes on the 22d of November, having parted Company with the Squadron under my Command in a hard Gale of Wind, a few Days after we left the Channel.

The Foudroyant, Modeſte, and Baſilisk, joined me the 27th, the Nottingham and Thunder the 1ſt of December, and the Vanguard, with the Remainder of the Squadron, on the 9th. The Temeraire and Actæon, with the Troops from Belleiſle, arrived the 14th of December, and Major General Monckton, with the Forces from North America, on the 24th; and having remained a few Days to water the Ships, refreſh the Men, and make the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for our Enterprize, we arrived off Martinico the 7th of January; and on the 8th we all anchored in St. Ann's Bay, the Ships I had appointed (under Sir James Douglas) having ſilenced the Forts of that Coaſt; in performing which, we had the Misfortune to loſe the Raiſonnable, as ſhe was leading in for one of the Enemy's Batteries, owing to the Pilots being ignorant of a little Reef of Rocks, which took her up. We have ſaved all her People, all her Stores, and I hope ſoon to get all her Guns.

Having, by this Motion of the Fleet and Army, taken Poſſeſſion of an excellent Harbour, and ſecured a Landing on the weathermoſt Part of the Iſland, which might be made tenable at any Time, as likewiſe thereby greatly alarmed the Enemy, at General Monckton's Requeſt, I diſpatched Commodore Swanton, with a Squadron of Ships, and two Brigades, to the Bay of Petite Ance, in order to take Poſt there. Captain Hervey of the Dragon having ſilenced the Battery of the Grand Ance, landed his Marines and Seamen, who attacked it alſo from the Shore, and took Poſſeſſion of the Fort; and, on the 14th, I followed with the whole Fleet and Army, after deſtroying the Enemies Batteries at St. Ann's Bay, when (having reconnoitred the Coaſt with the Genaral) we came to a Reſolution to make an Attempt between Point Negroe and the Cas De Pilotte, which I ordered to be attacked on the 16th; and having very ſucceſsfully and with little Loſs ſilenced the Batteries, I landed General Monckton with the greateſt Part of his Forces by Sun-ſet; and the whole Army was on Shore a little after Day-

[Price Three Pence.]

Day-light next Morning, without the Loſs of a Man (the Boats being commanded by Commodore Swanton in the Center, Capt. Shuldham on the Right Wing, and Capt. Hervey on the Left) with ſuch Neceſſaries as they were moſt immediately in want of, and had all the Ships and Tranſports anchored as much in Safety, as this Coaſt will admit.

I alſo landed two Battalions of Marines, conſiſting of 450 Men each.

The Army are now carrying on their Approaches to the Heights of Mount Grenie and Mount Tortueſon, which the Enemy have made as ſtrong as Art can do, and from whence the General propoſes to lay Siege to Fort Royal.

I have the Happineſs to add, that the Army and Navy continue in perfect Health; and carry on the Service with the greateſt Spirit and Harmony.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
